ONE MORE NIGHT RIDER INDICTMENT.

Grand Jury Finishes Up Its Good Work Thursday.

EIGHT TRUE BILLS IN ALL

Mat Gholson Case Is Set For Trial To-day--Wood Case Unsettled.

The grand jury re-convened Thursday and held a brief session and after returning five more indictments, making 80 in all, adjourned sine die. Some new business was taken up, but the farmers were impatient to get into their corn planting and the body finally decided to adjourn and let the investigation be finished by the grand jury to convene June 1.

One of the new indictments was for complicity in the raid on Hopkinsville. The man indicted is a prominent citizen whose name will not be given out until he is arrested. The other indictments were for minor offenses. One was against Link Hurst, who is accused of obtaining money under false pretenses from an old man named John Barnes. Barnes was robbed of his pocket book, containing $30, and Hurst went to him and claimed to be a detective and collected 50 cents from him for alleged expenses in finding the robbers. He is in jail.

Robert Wood, who was given a jail sentence of 3 months and a fine of $100 for sending a threatening letter to a negro named Lewis Dawson, has decided to fight his case further and on Thursday filed a motion for a new trial.

R. N. Wolfe and others vs. Jennie M. Wolfe and others. Sale of real estate ordered.

The Smith-Bennish injunction case was called yesterday afternoon, but the court decided to hear it the first thing this morning, before taking up the Gholson case.

Jim Weaver Indicted.

Among the last indictments returned by the grand jury was one against Jas. M. Weaver, charged with being in the raid on Hopkinsville. He was arrested yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Cravens, at his home on the T. H. Harred place near Fairview, which he recently bought. His defense will be an alibi. He claims to have been at Weaver's Store, Tenn., the night of the raid. He executed bond for $1,000.

Gholson Case To-day.

The case against Mat Gholson for confederating is set for to-day. He will be defended by Southall & Son, who have also been retained in one other night rider case, that of Dr. Wallace Durham.

The case of W. P. Winfree, Admr. Thos. Veach vs. L. & N. Railroad, was tried Thursday and judgment for $5,000 rendered in favor of the plaintiff. Veach was a market gardener killed last summer, while driving his wagon across the Twelfth street crossing. The suit was for $25,000.

The case of Marion Russell's Admr. vs. L. & N. Railroad, was tried and verdict rendered in favor of the defendants. Russell was a negro killed while asleep on the track at the Bradshaw crossing.

John Howell and William Holmes, two negroes, charged with sending a threatening letter to Bedford Davis, col., indicted by the grand jury, were arrested Thursday and lodged in jail.

WILLIAMSBURG

College Gets Lift From Education Board.

Dr. P. T. Hale, Corresponding Secretary of the Baptist Education Society of Kentucky, has been notified from New York that the General Education Board has granted $50,000 for the work of the Education Society in the State, applying the amount to Williamsburg Baptist Institute, in Whitley county. At the last meeting of the Southern Education Society in Pinehurst, Dr. Hale laid before the members of the board the educational needs of Kentucky and the efforts of the Kentucky Education Society to better conditions, especially in the mountainous parts of the State.

TWO CHARGED WITH MURDER

Of Hedges Are Arrested On a Warrant Sworn Out By His Widow.

THE RIDERS MUST QUIT

Their Carnival of Crime--Plan in Marshal to Intimidate Grand Jury.

Lexington, Ky., March 26.—On a warrant sworn out by Katherine Hedges, the widow of Hiram Hedges, who was shot last Friday night by night riders, Butler McAnahan, Jr., and Andrew Fanning, prominent farmers of Nicholas county, were arrested today, charged with the murder of Hiram Hedges. The Nicholas county Society of Equity, through its president, Herdy Myers, has published a card denying any connection with the murder of Hiram Hedges by night riders.

FIELD NOTES.

Night Riders Are Still Making History for Kentucky.

The independent growers of Jessamine and Madison county have determined to defy the night riders and will this year raise the largest crop of tobacco in the history of the two counties. The high prices in Louisville and Lexington are responsible for the decision of the growers. They are putting out the plant beds.

Night riders quietly visited Owenon early Wednesday morning and fired three big warehouses, one known to be an equity, which had 150,000 pounds of tobacco, part of it pooled, and caused a loss of $30,000. No other damage was committed.

Butler McAnahan, Jr., and Henry Fanning, prominent farmers, have been arrested on the charge of the murder of Hiram Hedges in Nicholas county Friday night. Warrants were sworn out by Mrs. Hedges, and it is understood that others are to follow. The men live only a short distance from the scene of the killing. The widow was accompanied to town by at least twenty of her neighbors and friends, who say they will protect her by day and by night with their lives should any attempt to molest her for the steps she has taken.

Owing to the grand jury's investigation of the night riders' raid at Birmingham, the citizens of Benton are in fear of a visit from one of the masked mobs. The town is being guarded and the Governor has been requested to send arms.

Gov. Willson has offered a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of each member of the band of night riders who murdered Hiram Hedges.

CONTROL BOARD OUT OF POLITICS

Gov. Willson Tells Body That Each One Should Get Out of All Committees.

LEAVE OUT SUPERS.

Urges Fair and Economical Administration For All State Institutions.

Frankfort, Ky., March 26.—That their retention as members of the State Board of Control is dependent upon the non-partisan conduct of institutions in their charge was set forth by Gov. Willson to the four men comprising this important branch of the Commonwealth's executive department.

Calling them into conference this morning, the Governor made them an earnest address, pointing out the great anxiety of the people of the State to see the institutions freed from partisan control and calling attention to past abuses on the part of favorites of political powers. He told them that the law under which the board was to be conducted was adopted in obedience to public sentiment, and in addition to that, it was his earnest personal wish that politics be eliminated entirely from the care of the hapless and afflicted who are wholly dependent upon the State.

LEAVE OUT SUPERS.

The Governor asked the members of the board to go over carefully the list of officers and employees of every institution and without delay to relieve from duty any whose services were not necessary for the proper care of the institutions; to consider carefully the capability and fitness of all employees, and in every case in which the present incumbent is not the best that the salary can secure, to replace him with the best person that can be secured regardless of politics.

POLITICS MUST GO.

Gov. Willson further requested the members of the board to exercise the greatest care and watchfulness in every item of expense connected with the institutions and to eliminate all unnecessary expenses and said he should hold it against the will of the people of the State if the member of the board or any officer or employee of the institutions shall continue to be a member of any political committee or shall take any part whatever in any political or partisan campaign except to exercise his right as a citizen to vote and talk about such matters as other citizens do.

He expressly set forth that any assessment, directly or indirectly, in any way of any officer or employee of any institution for any partisan or political purpose would violate the law under which the member of the board held office, and would be held as a serious offense inconsistent with the discharge of the duties contemplated by the act.

Killed at Princeton.

Princeton, Ky., Mar. 27.—A young man named Aubrey Nabb, was shot and killed at 1 o'clock this morning, by Henry Willson, manager of the Opera House. Nabb was shot in the right breast and walked down the steps and fell dead on the pavement. Leach Guest was ascending the steps behind Nabb, who had reached the platform at the top, but did not see the shooting, and details are meagre. Nabb lived in the Otter Pond neighborhood.

We have grass paddocks and box stalls for any that want to leave their mares. Will use every precaution to avoid accident, but not responsible should any occur.

Very respectfully,

J. E. COOPER.

Amusements.

The number of people who really live is small compared with the vast number that merely exist. Some people seem to think if they go to one minstrel show that they have seen them all and stop right there. Those are the people that just exist, nothing more.

In the larger cities it is common to meet the heads of families who in figuring on their daily, weekly or monthly expenses, figure that the theater is a necessary expense and a visit each week must be figured on. These people really live, and it is a noticeable fact that the same habit is spreading into the interior.

Go and see them all if you can afford it; if not, pick out that favorite that have the mark of age in their favor, those that have been before the public long enough to know just what they are getting. Richards & Prince's Famous Georgia Minstrels that come to Holland's Opera House on Thursday, April 2, will come near filling your expectations.

The Weather.

Probably thunder showers Saturday.

Caleb Powers is said to be ill with what appears to be typhoid fever, in the Georgetown jail.

Gov. Willson approved the bill appropriating $460,000 for the state capital, but vetoed the section retaining Andrews as architect.

Maj. A. H. Sinclair, former Mayor of Georgetown, died in that city. He was prominent in business and was Past Exalter Ruler of the Elks Lodge.

A well-defined rumor has spread through the New York Smart Set that Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt and his wife have separated, owing to domestic differences of long standing.

Governor Willson has approved the bill appropriating $25,000 each to the Western and Central Asylums and $17,500 to the Feeble Minded Institute. He has decided to veto the bill providing for pensions for Louisville school teachers after a certain term of service.

While summoning witnesses for the grand jury investigation in Lyon county, Deputy Marshal Neal discovered a plan of 200 night riders to go to Benton and appear before the grand jury, which is investigating the Birmingham raid, in the hopes of influencing the jury.

"The grand jury of Owen county reported that they could find no evidence against the night riders. This seems to be case wherever night riders appear."—Georgetown Times.

Christian county is an exception to this rule. Here we have officers and juries that are not afraid to do their duty.

Seven Senators have died since June 11, 1907, and one or two more are sick. High living and late hours wear out a good many of our statesmen, but still it is fair to state that four of the seven were more than seventy-five years of age.

An effort on the part of the American Newspaper Publishers Association to secure Legislation by Congress in putting print paper and wood pulp on the free list, has received a sudden shock because of the absolute refusal on the part of the ways and means committee to even give them a hearing.

General Manager F. G. Ewing of the Dark Tobacco Growers' association, is right in his declaration that the work of the night riders will ruin all the good efforts of the tobacco associations. The cause which has to resort to force loses in the end, always. Right will maintain itself in spite of opposition and without the aid of force, for right will rule at all times without assistance of crime.—Paducah News-Democrat.

MR. CASEY'S SIGN.

The current issue of the Independent contains this:

"We have been ordered by Mayor Meacham to take down the Independent sign from in front of the Independent office. As we are the only business on this square and several other firms have been allowed to have similar signs hung across the principal streets of the city for months and years—we recall at this moment a sign that hung in front of a trust factory, on a busy street for several years.—We do not know why the order was given, but using the expression of a well advertised food, 'There's a reason.' If we are forced to take down our sign we hope our former friends will find us anyhow."

Mayor Meacham has had no communication with Mr. Casey on the subject. The chief of police has been instructed to rigidly enforce in future the ordinance Mr. Casey violated last year and is still violating, but to give Mr. Casey temporary permission to advertise his new location until April 1st, before putting into effect the new order, so far as it affects him. Following is the ordinance prohibiting designs across the sidewalks:

Chap. xxxvi, Sec. 26, General Ordinances City of Hopkinsville:

"It shall be unlawful for any person to put up a sign-board or design over or across any of the pavements or sidewalks of the city of Hopkinsville, or to permit such to remain over or across such pavements or sidewalks." The penalty is $10 for each offense.

This order was not enforced rigidly last year, Mr. Casey being the chief beneficiary of the laxity.

We recall no trust "factory" that has been permitted to violate this ordinance for several years. A dealer in loose tobacco was given the same privilege accorded Mr. Casey last fall, until he was put out of business Dec. 7. Mr. Casey seems to be altogether unappreciative of special courtesies shown him, even to the extent of granting him immunity from arrest when he violates city ordinances. The new order applies to all signs stretched across any of the streets and it may later be extended, if the council so interprets the law, to include small signs attached to doorways, that project over the sidewalks.

In the course of a bitter denunciation of President Roosevelt on the floor of the House of Representatives, Mr. Stanley, of Kentucky, compared him with Alexander Hamilton, whom he designated as "an adventurer," and both of whom, he said, had profound contempt for the Constitution and displayed everlasting impatience with its restraints.

The books of the Tobacco Association are now open, by a special order from the executive committee. Our advice to every farmer in Christian county is to get into the Association without delay. We have repeatedly urged the tobacco growers to join one or the other of the organizations.

I AM A MOTHER

How many American women in lonely homes to-day long for this blessing to come into their lives, and to be able to utter these words, but because of some organic derangement this happiness is denied them.

Every woman interested in this subject should know that preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by the use of

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Mrs. Margie Gilmer, of West Union, S. C., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I was greatly run-down in health from a weakness peculiar to my sex, when Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me. It not only restored me to perfect health, but to my delight I am a mother."

Mrs. Josephine Hall, of Bardonia, Ky., writes:

"I was a very great sufferer from female troubles, and my physician failed to help me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound not only restored me to perfect health, but I am now a proud mother."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

An Object Lesson.

"Miranda," said the mistress, "you are a good cook, and I just know that you are too good for us to keep any length of time. Some man will come along one of these days and induce you to marry him."

"Oh, no, mum," answered Miranda fervently. "I've lived with you and your husband too long to want ever to get married."

There are two conclusions to be drawn from the reply of the faithful servant. One is that she was loyal to her employers; the other is as it may be.—Chicago Post.

TWO MINUTE SKETCHES

Robert Fulton.

By J. A. EDGERTON.

He lived long enough to become one of the immortals.

ROBERT FULTON'S parents were so poor that the future inventor had scarcely any education, barely learning how to read and write. His father died when Robert was three years old, and at an early age the boy was apprenticed to a Philadelphia jeweler. In addition to his work in the shop, young Fulton applied himself to portrait and landscape painting and showed such talent that he was enabled to keep his widowed mother and in four years bought a farm on which he placed her. He then went to London to prosecute the study of his art as a painter. So strong a bent had he for science, however, that in his odd hours he studied mechanics and engineering. Finally attracting the attention of the Duke of Bridgewater, who was then interested in an extensive canal scheme, Fulton was induced by that gentleman to give up painting altogether and to devote himself to civil engineering and invention.

In the next few years Fulton invented an incline plane for supplanting canal locks, a mill for sawing and polishing marble, a machine for spinning flax and another for making ropes. He also wrote a book on navigating canals and another on the application of steam to navigation. At about this time he attracted the notice of Edward F. Livingston, United States minister at Paris. In response to an invitation Fulton went to that city, where he soon invented a submarine boat, which he vainly tried to have adopted by the French, British and American governments. After his failure in this attempt he returned to his dream of steam navigation and invented a small boat which successfully navigated the Seine. Livingston was so interested that he advanced money to Fulton to come to America and build a steamboat for the Hudson. The result was the Clermont, from whose first trip between New York and Albany dates the beginning of a new era in the water transportation of the world. The Clermont marked the high tide of Fulton's success. He was forty-two years old at the time and lived only eight years longer, having been worn out by the incessant toil of his earlier life. He had lived long enough, however, to become one of the immortals.

GO RIGHT AT IT.

Friends and Neighbors in Hopkinsville Will Show
You How.

Get at the root of the trouble.
Rubbing an aching back may relieve it,
But it won't cure it.

You must reach the root of it—the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills go right at it; Reach the cause; relieve the pain. Mrs. Eva Hobbs, living on North Seminary street, Madisonville, Ky., says: "I have no hesitancy in endorsing the claims made for Doan's Kidney Pills, as they are, without doubt, the best kidney medicine in the world. When, they permanently cured me of my trouble in the summer of 1903, I allowed my experience to be published in our local papers so that others who suffer as I did might know what course to pursue to get relief. I was a sufferer for years with terrible pains through my kidneys and down through my loins. There were such bearing down pains at times that I actually had to give up and lie down until the pain subsided. The secretions from the kidneys were irregular in action and painful, in passing. I tried remedy after remedy, and wore plasters but received little or no relief. Doan's Kidney Pills made a complete and permanent cure four years ago, and it only required two boxes to do it. I have been perfectly free from any kidney complaint ever since."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The family were discussing the coming wedding of the only daughter. "Of course," said the bride to be to her father, "you will give me away?" "I'm afraid I have done it already, my dear," he replied. "I told George only this morning that you had a disposition just like your mother's!"

Torturing eczema spreads its burning area every day. Doan's Ointment quickly stops its spreading, instantly relieves the itching, cures it permanently. At any drug store

PRESBYTERIAN BROTHERHOOD

Steps Looking to Organization Taken Thursday Night.

Steps were taken Thursday night to organize a Presbyterian Brotherhood at the First Presbyterian church. There was a large attendance of the male members present, presided over by Rev. E. P. Full, pastor of the church, who explained the objects of the organization, after which a free discussion was indulged in by many of those present. Twenty-one names were enrolled for membership in the Brotherhood. Another meeting will be held next Wednesday night to complete the organization. After the business closed a banquet was given in the Sunday school room, presided over by a committee of the ladies of the church which was greatly enjoyed by all who were present. After dinner talks were made by Prof. Cogner and Messrs. Allen M. Wallis and Jas. West, Dr. Bull acting as toastmaster.

KILLED HIMSELF.

Former Christian Countian Commits Suicide.

Mr. M. D. Keatts, of this place, received a telegram Tuesday night apprising him of the sad news that his brother, E. A. Keatts, of Minadoka, Idaho, had committed suicide by shooting himself. No further facts were given, and relatives here and in Christian county are at a loss to know what could have caused such a rash act.

Mr. Keatts was about fifty-five years of age and unmarried.

He left his home near Lafayette about thirty years ago for the West in search of health, believing that he had consumption. He regained his health and developed into a robust man. His relatives here heard from him regular every two or three months, and he seemed to be getting along well, until the first of last week when one of his brothers in Christian county received a letter from him stating that he needed a certain amount of money, which was small, and unless he received it at once he would end his life. His brothers forwarded him the money by registered letter last Wednesday, and had heard nothing further from him until the telegram Tuesday announcing his death.—Cadiz Record.

Fat Is An Offense.

"The female form being capable of expressing a supreme degree of grace, should be an inspiration in our daily lives and lead up to higher ideals of beauty," said the art lecturer. "Therefore the fat woman is an enemy to the artistic uplift, for she is entirely too heavy for any wings of fancy to raise."

"I can't understand how any woman will remain fat when it is so easy to reduce one's flesh. In the Latin quarter of Paris one never sees a fat figure. Although the art models take things easy, sit around a great deal and eat just whatever they please, yet they keep their flesh firm and their figures beautiful. They have a simple fat reducer that takes the place of starving and gymnastics. It consists of a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime of this simple receipt: 1/2 ounce Marmala, 1/2 ounce Field Extract Cascan Aromatic, and 3/5 ounces Syrup Simplex. That's all. Why don't fat, pudgy American women try that? It's harmless—say, very good for them—and will, I understand, take off as much as a pound of fat a day. Any one with a little small change and a drug store handy can have a decent figure."

FEEDING VETERANS.

Plans for the Birmingham Reunion Outlined.

The party who will have charge of the feeding of the veterans at the reunion at Birmingham, Ala., in June, has outlined the plans. Instead of three meals a day, they will serve two, but they will be at such hours as to be of the greatest convenience. The hours will be from 6 to 10 a. m., and from 2 to 7 p. m. In this way the veterans will be able to eat at convenient hours and as often as they choose. The arrangements will be under the supervision of Sheriff Higdon, who will have a corps of eighty cooks and waiters at the mess hall at the Fair Grounds.

BRIDE AT FOURTEEN

Mr. Hinson is a son of Mr. James Hinson, and a clever young farmer. His bride is a daughter of Robert Williams and a grand daughter of the late Lesenberg Williams. ## Anderson's Fashion Show,

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY,

APRIL 1st AND 2nd.

WHAT NEW YORK and PARIS have originated in Millinery and Ladies' Garments, is given accurate and full expression in our Opening Display. Prices are extremely moderate—figured on the actual worth of each hat or garment and not one cent added for style exclusiveness. The two young ladies who have made Anderson's Millinery famous, are still with us—Miss Schroeder as head trimmer, and Miss Annie Cayce as head saleslady; the one, born with an inspiration to trim and create hats—the other, a prodigy in the art of salesmanship—with a power to select becoming and wearable hats that is truly wonderful.

These two young ladies view, with pardonable pride, the success of this department, and promise more intelligent service than ever before. Come to the Opening, Wednesday and Thursday, April 1st and 2nd.
